I John Duckworth do swear that I will faithfully, impartially and honestly according to the best of my Skill and ability, execute and perform the powers and authorities vested and reposed in me as a Commissioner in the Parish of Ardcarne, by virtue of an act passed in the Fourth year of the Reign of King George the fourth, entitled "an act to provide for the Establishing of Composition for Tythes in Ireland for a limited time", according to the directions of said act, and according to Equity and good Conscience, and without favour or affection, prejudice or malice to any person or persons whomsoever

So help me God

Wm Duckworth –

Sworn before me this 19th day of October 1832

Meyrick Polson

Magistrate for Co. Roscommon
