duly made his report in writing now we the said Justices do ascertain from the said Dublin Gazette that the average price of wheat for the 7 years preceding the 1st. day of November, 1826, was one pound ten shillings and seven pence three-farthings per barrel of 20 stone and that the average price of wheat for the 7 years preceding the 13th. day of June, 1889 was eighteen shillings and tenpence three-farthings per barrel of 20 stone as aforesaid and we do accordingly order and adjudge that the amount of the said composition for Tithes and Tithe Rent Charge in lieu thereof in the said parish of Ballingarry in the Division of Rathkeale and County of Limerick aforesaid other than such rent charges as became vested in the Commissioners of Church Temporalties in Ireland shall be diminished for the 7 years next ensuing the first day of November, 1889, in the proportion that the said sum of one pound ten shillings and seven pence three-farthings bears to the said sum of eighteen shillings and ten pence three-farthings and that the applotment of such composition be amended accordingly and We Do Further Order and adjudge that the said Edmond Moroney, Thomas Fosberry, James O'Shaughnessy and Michael Scanlan the applicants do pay to the said James Green Barry the sum of £15.. 15.. 0 as and for his costs and expenses of said abitration and report. And That the said applicants and the persons entitled