We Thomas Filgate and Joseph Booth Commissioners duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an Act made in the Fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth intitled "an Act to provide for the establishment of composition for Tithes in Ireland for a limited time," do hereby certify that at a Special Vestry held according to the provisions of said act in the Parish Church of the Union of Charlestown exclusively for the Parish of Clonkreehan in said Union on Wednesday the Twenty seventh day of October one thousand eight hundred & twenty four it was then agreed upon & confirmed (the consent of His Grace the Lord Primate having been previously obtained) between the Rector of said Parish and the Parishioners then assembled that the fixed yearly sum of Fifty pounds sterling be the true & just amount of Composition for all Tithes arising, growing, yielded or payable within the said Parish of Clonkreehan in said Union of Charlestown in the County of Louth, and it was further agreed upon that such composition shall be inviolable for the term of Twenty one years from the first day of May last & that such composition shall continue to be levied for such term of Twenty one years & shall not be subject to any variations in the amount thereof during such period of Twenty one years under the provisions of said limited act or this act whatever the price of corn may be

Dated this 29th day of October 1825

Thos Filgate Commissioners
Joseph Booth