Of the late Irish currency per Barrel being equivalent to one pound fifteen shillings and one penny of the present currency and Whereas the said Applicants and the Reverend Mountifort Longfield Connor Rector of said Parish having appeared by their respective solicitors before the said justices at such Quarter Sessions and the said notice of application certificate of composition and other documents having been proved and the said justices having in pursuance of the statute in that case made and provided nominated and appointed James Richard Bull to be an arbitrator to ascertain the average price of the Barrel of good marketable Wheat as advertised in the Dublin Gazette for the seven years immediately preceding the date of this present sessions and the said James Richard Bull having by his report in writing under his hand duly verified on oath certified to the said justices that he had examined the said Gazettes and taken the average price of Wheat as therein advertized for said period of seven years and that the average price of good marketable Wheat for said seven years is one pound eight shillings and three pence per barrel Now the said justices do find that the average price of Wheat for the said seven years is as same was so reported by the said James Richard Bull as aforesaid and that the said average price of one pound eight shillings and three pence is less by more than one tenth than the said average price of one pound fifteen shillings and one penny found by the certificate of the original composition as aforesaid and do order and adjudge that the amount of said composition for tithes in said Parish and the rentcharges payable in lieu thereof shall be diminished in proportion to the difference between the said average price of one pound eight shillings and three pence sterling and the said average price of one pound fifteen shillings and one penny and that the assessment and apportionment of said composition shall be amended so as to bear the same proportion to the amount of said composition as so diminished as aforesaid as the original assessment and apportionment do bear to such original composition as aforesaid

David R Pigot } Chairman of Quarter Sessions for said Riding and Division

Henry Bull } Deputy Clerk of the Peace

1 15 1 old average
1 8 3 average at date of Arrangement
6 10