We John Lucas and Simon O'Donnell Commissioners duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an Act made in the Fourth year of the reign of George the Fourth entitled "An act to provide for the establishment of composition for Tithes in Ireland for a limited time": and also an Act made in the Fifth year of the said King entitled "An act to amend the same" to ascertain and fix a true and just composition for all Tithes arising, growing, spiteling or payable within the parish of Killard in the County of Clare, do hereby certify, that at a Special Vestry duly assembled at Dumbeg in said parish of Killard on the 25th day of January 1825 for the purpose of carrying into execution the purposes of the said Acts, that the Revd. Irwine Whitty Incumbent of the said parishes of Killard did then and there enter into an agreement with the Chairman and members of the said Vestry so assembled for the Sum of One Hundred and Ten Pounds Sterling by the year as a composition for his part of the Tithes of the said parish being a third parts, which Sum we consider to be a true and just composition for his said part of the Tithes of said parish: And that such composition shall be and remain in full force and effect for the whole space of Twenty one years and shall not be subject to any variation in the amount thereof during such period of Twenty one years what ever the price of corn may be. Given under our hands this 10th day of April 1825
