Lodged 12th June
1837

I John T. Lynch duly appointed by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland in pursuance of the 2nd & 3rd William the 4th chap 119 do certify that this book contains my application of the amount of composition for all the tithes of that part of the parish of Calary the several boundaries of which are set forth in this book and which formerly formed part of the parish of Newcastle in the Diocese of Dublin and County of Wicklow as ascertained by my certification pursuant of the provisions of the 4th Geo 4th chap 99 and the acts amending the same being the sum of fifty two pounds one shilling and seven pence sterling by the year of which sum of fifty two pounds one shilling & seven pence the sum of twenty nine pounds seven shillings & two pence is due & payable to the Revd Assington Macklin as a composition for the tithes claimable by him as lay impropriator entitled to the Rectorial tithes of the said part of the said parish and the sum of twenty two pounds fourteen shillings