Extracts from the Registry of the Consistorial Court of Waterford and Lismore

I Thomas Gamble Commissioner duly appointed and Sworn under and by Virtue of an Act passed in the Second and third Years of the Reign of his present Majesty King William the Fourth Entitled an Act to amend three Acts passed respectively in the fourth, fifth, Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the fourth providing for the Establishing of Composition for Tithes in Ireland and to make such Composition permanent. To ascertain and fix a true and just Composition for all Tithes arising growing yielded or payable within the Parish of Kilbride in the Diocese of Waterford and County of Waterford do hereby Certify that the true and just Amount of Composition for all Tithes whatever within the said Parish is Seventy four Pounds Sixteen Shillings and three pence by the year — which Sum is due and payable to James Kearney Esqr of Graceduw as Lessee of the Oeconomy of the Cathedral Church of Waterford being the Average of the Sums agreed for and paid to the said James Kearney Esqr as Lessee — for Seven Years preceding the 1st day of November 1830. — And I do further Certify that the Average price of Oats being the Corn principally grown in this County for the period of Seven Years Ending on the first day of November 1830 was Twelve Shillings and Eleven pence per Barrell. Thomas Gamble Commissioner — Cullenagh Waterford October 28th 1833
