Parish of Clonalvey County of Meath

I Fr. Robert Cotton commissioner duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an act made in the second, and third year of his Majesty King William the fourth, entitled "An Act to amend three acts passed respectively in the fourth, fifth, and in the seventh, and eighth, years of the reign of his late Majesty King George the fourth, providing for the establishing of compositions for Tithes in Ireland, and to make such compositions permanent." To ascertain and fix a true and just composition, for all tithes, arising growing, yielded or payable within the parish of Clonalvey aforesaid, in the County of Meath. DO hereby certify that the true and just amount of composition for all Tithes whatsoever within the said parish is One hundred and Fifty five pounds sterling, by the year — Of which sum of One hundred and Fifty five pounds —— One hundred pounds sterling, are due and payable to the Marquis of Drogheda and his lessee the Rev. William Louis Beaufort as a composition claimable by them as Tithe owners, to be paid out of all that part of said parish where he (the said Marquis of Drogheda and his Lessee) has heretofore received tithes —— And Fifty five pounds sterling, are due and payable to the Rev. William Vandeleur Vicar of said parish as aforesaid, as a composition for the tithes claimable by him as vicar of said parish, to be paid out of all that part of said parish where he as such vicar has heretofore received Tithes, (namely the entire of the tithes of the lands of Flimingtown, and the vicarial tithes of the remainder of the Parish.) —

And I do further certify that the average price of Wheat being the corn principally grown in said county for the period of Seven years ending on the first day of November 1830, is one pound twelve shillings and one half penny per Barrel.

Given under my hand this 18th day of October 1833

Fran.s Cotton } Commissioner.
