From Dennis Callaghan
4 Feby 1833 A provincial pound note No – 17215. —

The value of the Levies

		Pounds
The Parish of Clonmeen Compounded for		60 – 0 – 0
Mayne Compounded for 40 £ Irish		36 : 18 : 5 ½
The parishes of Miscellaneous Compounded pay from 25 to 30		25 – 0 : 0
Grand of Fifty Eight fines		48 – 18 – 5 ½
		170 : 16 : 11
Deduct		without Court & Office &c
To the rent	22 : 3 : 1
To Fee & Mileage to Bailiff	17 : 0 : 0
To Printing & Collecting	20 : 0 : 0
County Taxes	1 : 0 : 0
Small sums in Compos Book not Collected	10 : 0 : 8
	70 : 3 : 9
Leaves	71 : 13 : 1	£

Mem / Miscellaneous is never compounded for – 23 : 0
for as this makes the value of it ||

1-2-11
2-7-6
-10-5

2-13-84
15-0
1-19-10

24-2
12-1

June 3rd 1886
Scariff

My Dear Mr Hanlon

In reply to your Queries to mention that the townlands which have fallen to me on the Division of the Meehick Estate are as follows

Clonrush
Clonmohane &
Knockmanora –

Hoping you and all with you are quite well Believe me
Most truly yours

J. P. Campion

The Revd
A. P. Hanlon
Ballyvaughan