I William Greene a Commissioner duly appointed and sworn under and by Virtue of an Act passed in the second & third years of the Reign of Her present Majesty & by William the Fourth to amend Three Acts passed respectively in the Fourth Sixth and Seventh of the late Majesty King George the fourth for the establishing of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland and to make such Compositions Permanent do ascertain and fix a true and just Composition for all the tithes growing Yielded or payable within the Rectory or Parish of Longchamp in the Barony of Rise and County of Cork; do hereby certify that the true and just Amount of Composition for all Tithes whatsoever within the said Rectory or Parish is Forty Two Pounds by the Year — the whole of which sum is due and Payable to the Reverend James E. Barter as Compositor for the tithes claimable by him as Rector of the said Rectory or Parish — And I do further certify that the average price of Wheat being the Corn principally grown in said County for the Space of Seven Years ending on the 31 of October 1830 is One Pound Twelve Shillings and One Halfpenny per Barrel.

Signed at Dungarvan
this 28 day of August 1833

W Greene
Commissioner

COPY ISSUED
9 APR 97