Mr. Drummond presents his compliments to Mr. Stock, and in referring to a previous correspondence relative to the apportionment books for the parish of Dunfanaghy, requests that Mr. Stock will have the goodness to substitute the Books herewith sent for all former documents lodged with him regarding the apportionment of the above stated Parish. The detached manner in which the necessary information

lead