Carlow in the County of Carlow in which such Parish is situate on the said 10th day of October 1853 to ascertain the average price of good marketable oats as advertized in the Dublin Gazette during the seven years preceding then said application and the notice pursuant to the provisions of the Statute in that case made and provided and the other preliminaries provided by the Statute in such case having been proved the said Justices presiding in the presence of Counsel and attorney for the applicants and the attorney and agent of the Revd William Doyne Rector of said Parish then and there thought it fit pursuant to the Statute in that case made and provided to nominate and appoint William Raymond Fitzmaurice of Everton in the Queens County Esqr an arbitrator to ascertain the average price of a Barrel of good marketable oats from the Dublin Gazette upon the average of such term of seven years preceding then said application and to report the same in writing under his hand to the said Justices at the Quarter Sessions next following such application and the said Justices then and there adjourned the further hearing of such application unto the then next Sessions to be held at Carlow aforesaid on the 2nd January 1854 And when as the said William Raymond Fitzmaurice having at the Quarter Sessions held at Carlow aforesaid on the said 2nd day of January 1854 delivered to the Justices presiding at said Sessions the Report in writing under his hand whereby he gave us to understand that the average price of good marketable oats for the seven years preceding the said application was 12s/3d British Currency per Barrel And whereas on the said 2nd day of January aforesaid the said parties having appeared by their respective Attorneys this matter and the proceedings had thereon were further adjourned unto the then next Sessions that is to say the present under Sessions to be holden before