of the said demised Lands, and should the Said Lease expire at any future period, then the said entire Sum of One Hundred and four Pounds, eight shillings, sterling, will become due and payable to Representative of the late William Blacker Esqr the Proprietor in Fee of Said Lands, as Lay Impropriator, And one Seventh part (left by five shillings and eight pence) amounting to Thirty four Pounds Seven shillings and Six pence, sterling, British would be the proportion to be applotted as Composition for all Tithes of that part of said Parish Called the Townland of Ballycamas, otherwise Ballycumusk, And I further Certify that the said Sum of Thirty four Pounds, Seven shillings And Six pence, Cannot be demanded during the Continuance of the Leases hereinafter referred to, of which Sum of Thirty four Pounds Seven shillings And Six pence, The Two Thirds, and nine shillings, and One penny, amounting to, Twenty three Pounds, six shillings, and three pence, sterling British, would be the proportion to be applotted as Composition for all Tithes on that part of the aforesaid Lands of Ballycamas, otherwise Ballycumusk now held under a Lease of Lives Renewable for Ever, by the Revd William Minchin, from and under Major Thomas Mogile, during the continuance of which Lease no Tithes, a Composition for Tithes is payable or can be demanded off or from Any part of said Lands, as Leased to the said Revd William Minchin, But should the said Lease of Lives Renewable for ever, expire at any future period, then the said Sum of Twenty three Pounds six shillings and three pence sterling, will become due and payable to the said Major Thomas Mogile, the Proprietor in Fee, as Lay Impropriator, or his Representative, And the One third (left by Seven and eleven pence) Amounting to eleven Pounds, one shilling, and three pence, would be the Amount, to be applotted as Composition for all Tithes on that part of the aforesaid Lands of Ballycamas, otherwise Ballycumusk now held under a Lease of Lives Renewable for Ever by the Representatives of the late Francis Kearney Esqr of the City of Cashel, during the Continuance of which Lease, no Tithes or Composition for Tithes is payable or Can be demanded off or from Any part of said Lands, as Leased to the said Representatives of the late Francis Kearney Esqr But should the said Lease expire at any future period, then the said entire sum of Eleven Pounds, one shilling and three pence, will become due and payable to the Proprietor in Fee of that part of the said Lands of Ballycamas, otherwise Ballycumusk now held by the said Representatives of the aforesaid late Francis Kearney Esqr, and their under tenants, as Lay Impropriator, And I do further Certify, that the Average price of wheat, being the Corn principally grown in said County for the period of Seven years, ending the first day of November One thousand Eight hundred and thirty, is One pound twelve shillings and One halfpenny sterling British per Barrel as published in the Dublin Gazette,

Dated this 29th October 1834

See Register of Estates

Stephen Barry
Commissioner

COPY ISSUED