We John Mansfield of Ballymoney and Edw. Semple of Ballintemple, Commissioners duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an Act made in the fourth year of the reign of King George the fourth, entitled "An Act to provide for the establishing of Composition for tithes in Ireland for a limited time to ascertain and fix a true and just composition for all tithes arising growing, and yielded or payable within the parish of Inch in the County Wexford, do hereby Certify that the true and just amount of Composition for all tithes whatever within the said parish, according to an agreement made between the Rector and the Parishioners sanctioned by the Archbishop of the Diocese, fixed and provided for the Rector, is three hundred pounds stg. by the year, which sum of three hundred pounds stg. per annum is due and payable to the Rev. Thos. Pudlogen or his successors as Rector in the parish of Inch for one and twenty years, for the tithes claimed by him as Rector of said parish of Inch. — Given under our hands and seals this 18th day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight. —
