For the Revd George Leslie Gregson
Vicar of the Union of Ardnorcher

Completed and handed over
28th of June 1826

Shelton Gregson

Copy of First Act of Vestry

At a Special Vestry held in the Church of Clara for the Parish of Killside on Friday the 24th day of September 1824 under the Provisions of an Act Entitled the Act to provide for the Establishing of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland for a limited time. It was resolved to adjourn the Vestry to the Sessions House as a more convenient place where said Vestry was then immediately after held –

Resolved that we agree to act under the Provisions of the above recited Act

Resolved that we have hereby agreed on the part of the Parish with the Revd George Leslie Gregson to pay to him yearly and every year the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds for the period of twenty one years from the First day of May last in Lieu of all Tithes arising growing, yielded or payable within the said Parish of Killside in the King's County

Resolved that William Telford Grimes Esq of Greenville be and is hereby appointed on the part of the Parish to act as Commissioner

James Sheil		A Fuller Chairman
Jno Ferrall		Saml Armstrong
Edwd Kelly		Saml Dickinson
Patt Kane	Patt Clavin	Cha Bagot
Wm Ryan	James Sullivan	Patt Saml
John Flaherty

I do hereby name and Appoint Edwd Cox Esq of Clara House to Act as my Commissioner in said Parish of Killside in carrying into Effect the resolutions and proceedings under the Tithe Composition Act George Leslie Gregson Vicar of Union of Ardnorcher

Diocese of Meath
24th September 1824

The above named Commissioner having neglected to proceed in the execution of their duties for a period of nearly six Months the Revd Shelton Gregson was named in the Form of Edwd Cox Esq by the Revd George Leslie Gregson and regularly appointed under Hand and Seal by a Deed bearing date the 21st day of March 1825 after which the Then Commissioners having Sworn