TOWNLAND OF Inshmacnaghten

No.	Subdenominations and Observations.	Quantity. A.	R.	P.	Rate per Statute Acre.	Amount of Land. £	s.	d.	Amount of Houses one-third being deducted. £	s.	d.
	Brought forward	218	0	31		274	10	11
	produces a little herbage and on chiefly a good deal of bent and other coarse grass	51	1	15	12.6	32	1	9
10	Salt Marsh	0	2	18	7.3	0	4	4
	Also pasture of the bank &c	3	2	0	18.6	3	4	9
	Also good old pasture	7	2	0	36.6	13	13	9
11	Good old pasture on rich gravelly loam	2	1	10	33.0	3	16	2
12	Good old pasture on rich gravelly loam	1	1	35	33.0	2	8	4
	Total	284	3	29		330	0	0

15th July 1850
James Lynam Valuator, valued land
There are no houses in this island worth five pounds a year
6th March 1844.
James Lynam Valuator Valued houses

~~TOWNLAND OF~~ Islands along the River Fergus

No.	Subdenominations and Observations.	Quantity. A.	R.	P.	Rate per Statute Acre.	Amount of Land. £	s.	d.	Amount of Houses one-third being deducted. £	s.	d.
	No. 2. Feenish
1	Pasture generally good on limestone	28	2	35	14.0	20	2	0
	Also coarse meadow	2	0	0	17.0	1	14	0
2	Arable generally ill-shaped deep soft calcarious soil on calcarious subsoil, all sheltered	24	2	30	22.0	27	3	0
	Also inferior arable	2	0	0	19.0	1	18	0
3	Arable good deep sandy calcarious soil on sandy calcarious subsoil	9	3	30	24.0	11	18	6
	Also strand	1	0	0	0.0	0	0	0
4	Arable one third good sandy calcarious soil, two thirds good strong but steep soil	34	3	12	23.6	40	18	6
	Carried forward	103	0	27		103	13	10
		103	0	27		103	13	10			