

For that the Profits of this Land were Design'd for keeping the Church in Repair, and providing things necessary for Divine Service; Now the Church has been & is in Ruins ever since the Revolution, and the Vicar is worth but fifty Pounds a Year.

The said Patrick Cannan dyed lately - and it is apprehended that if Church-Wardens were duly appointed, they might recover these Lands, out of the Hands of the Representatives of these Cannans, who usurp'd the same & forcibly kept Possession

Your Opinion is desired how to proceed for that Purpose
