				8851 2 22	Statute Acreage.								necessary to state that in deducting the Untithable Quantity (which consists entirely of Roads) from the separate holdings, he has uniformly made that deduction from the highest class of Land, with which each individual is Chargeable.
													The few cases that have occurred in the preceding Accounts in which the Rents payable are not stated, have arisen from the impossibility the Commissioner found in their ascertainment.
