Copy, Extracted from the Registry of the Diocese of Ardagh this 9th of November 1859 —

I James West O'Brien having been duly appointed and sworn a Commissioner under and by Virtue of an Act made in the second and third years of the Reign of King William IV. intituled — "An Act to amend three Acts passed respectively in the Fourth, Fifth and in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King Geo. IV., providing for the establishing of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland, and to make such Compositions permanent, to Ascertain and fix a true and just Composition for all Tithes arising, growing, yielded, or payable within the Parish of Clonodonnel in the Diocese of Ardagh in the County of Longford — Do hereby Certify that the true and just amount of Composition for all Tithes whatever within the said Parish of Clonodonnel as ascertained from the seven years average preceding the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and ~~thirty~~, is Seventy seven pounds eleven Shillings and two pence sterling, by the year, Of which sum of seventy seven pounds eleven Shillings and two pence, The sum of Fifty one pounds four Shillings and three pence, is due and payable to the Reverend William Digby as a composition for all tithes claimable by him as Rector and Vicar of said Parish, And the sum of Twenty six pounds six Shillings and Eleven pence is due and payable to his Grace the Arch Bishop of Tuam