We John Delmege and Charles Wallace Commissioners duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an Act made in the fourth year of the reign of King George the fourth intitled "An Act to provide for the establishment of compositions for tithes in Ireland for a limited time," to ascertain and fix a true and just composition for all Tithes arising, growing, yielded or payable within the Parish of Kilthomas in the County of Galway, do hereby certify that the true and just amount of composition for all Tithes whatever within the said Parish is one hundred and fifty two pounds ten shillings sterling, British currency, by the year, which composition shall be invariable for the term of twenty one years and shall continue to be levied for such term of twenty one years without any variation in the amount thereof whatever the price of corn may be, of which sum of one hundred and fifty two pounds ten shillings, the sum of one hundred pounds is due and payable to the Reverend Edward Warrigan as a composition for the tithe claimable by him as Rector and Vicar of the said Parish, and the sum of thirty four pounds ten shillings is due and payable to the Lord Bishop of the diocese of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh, and the sum of eighteen pounds is due and payable to the Reverend Edward Warrigan as Prebendary of Kinvara - And we do further certify that the average price of wheat, being the corn principally grown in such County, for the period of seven years, ending on the first ~~[illegible]~~ day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty one is one pound eighteen shillings and eight pence halfpenny per barrel as taken from the Dublin Gazette - Dated this eleventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty six -

John Delmege
Chas. Wallace } Commissioners