Peace to be held in and for said County Riding and Division that is to say the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held at Fermoy in and for said County Riding and Division on the 28th day of January 1897 for further consideration. And whereas said application pursuant to said order of adjournment came on for hearing before the Justices of the Peace assembled at the last mentioned General Quarter Sessions of the Peace at Fermoy on the 28 day of January 1897 in presence of Counsel for said applicants. and also in presence of Counsel for Adelaide Jane Gaggin claiming to be entitled to the said composition. and the Rent charge in lieu thereof in said Parish payable to the Lay Impropriator. And whereas by order of said Justices then and there made it was ordered that the average price of oats being the com in said Certificate of said

Lewis

Lewis Fitzmaurice mentioned be inquired of and ascertained from the Dublin Gazette for the seven years preceding the 1st November 1896 in order that the amount of said Composition and the Rent charge now payable in lieu thereof in said Parish of Lisgoold may be varied or increased or diminished in proportion to said average price and Edward Heard of Ballintubber Carrigtwohill in the County of Cork Esquire was appointed an arbitrator for ascertaining the average price of the barrel of good marketable oats for the term of seven years next preceding said first November 1896 and was ordered to ascertain said average price from the Dublin Gazette for said term and to state and set forth such average price by his Report in writing under his hand and to deliver said Report to the Justices of the Peace of said County of Cork assembled at the next ensuing

General