determine that the average price of the barrel of good marketable oats being the corn stated in said original certificate of said Lewis Fitzmaurice mentioned for the term of Seven years next preceding the 1st November 1896 as ascertained from the Dublin Gazette is Eleven shillings and one penny and that said average price varies by more than a tenth from the price in said certificate of said Lewis Fitzmaurice stated, And we the said Justices do hereby order that the amount of the said composition for the impropriate Tithe in said Parish of Lisgoold payable to the Lay Impropriator be varied and diminished for the Term of Seven years next ensuing the 1st day of November 1896 in such manner and to such extent that the amount of said Composition payable to said Lay Impropriator for said Term of Seven years next ensuing the

the 1st day of November 1896 shall bear the like proportion to the amount of the said Composition set forth in said original certificate of said Lewis Fitzmaurice as the average price of the barrel of good marketable oats for the Seven years preceding the said application as advertized in the Dublin Gazette that is to say Eleven shillings and one penny bears to the average price of the barrel of good marketable oats set forth in said original certificate that is to say Twelve shillings and Eleven pence half penny and that the Rent Charge now payable in said Parish of Lisgoold in lieu of said composition to said Lay Impropriator be varied and diminished in the like proportion and accordingly that the amount of the said Composition for the Impropriate Tithes in the Parish of Lisgoold payable to said Lay Impropriator under and according to said original certificate