

any composition and stated that it was a matter between the Governor & the Incumbent, in which they, the Vestry, had no concern. - That they accordingly adjourned "Sine die". -

He will also prove that he attended & gave evidence before the Comtee on the 11th Octr following and on that occasion Shaughrissy with about Thirty of the Parishers came to the Vicars house where the averages were striking, for the purpose of demanding from Wistrup certain Tithe notes which had been previously passed but not paid, and that no allusion to the Comtee was made or a wish so much as expressed to assist in striking the averages. -

He will also prove that the Schedule of Rents &c which he produces are correct to the best of his knowledge & belief; -

Call John Sheahan Valuator.

To prove he Valued in 1830 & that the Parish is reasonably well worth £600. -