	To whom belonging	Total Amount of Composition for annum			Amount to which landlord is balance liable			Amount to which tenant is balance liable			When landlord or agent written to	Nature of reply
Coolower	Thos. Bayco Esq. Cork Richd. Gumbleton Esq.	249 26	0 .	2 6								Payment was requested 10th Feby. and a list name enclosed, requesting he would specify householders, and dates of leases, and tenant will, and dates of commencement of tenure. Mr. Bayco replied 13th Feby. giving implicit expressing his readiness to pay, but requesting allowance of 15 per cent. his liability 2.9.4. Mr. Richd. Gumbleton of Castlemore holds the other parts of the Townland. His Agent Mr. Myers has been written to for information.
Corrigh	Duke of Devonshire	35	10	8	11	2	10					Col. Curry has paid the amount of the Duke of Devonshire's liabilities for 1834 and 1835.
Garrybritties	Thos. Gumbleton Esq.	13	12									Written to 10th Feby. requesting payment. He has not replied. Some paid
Garryclogra	Duke of Devonshire	21	4	4	3	6	6	17	17	10		Col. Curry has paid 2 years tithe for the [illegible] — owes tithe to the amount of £10 7 4. per annum.
Knocknamuck	Mr. Richd. [illegible]	24	17	6								Written to 11th Feby. for information. Replied [illegible] that he let the lands for terms of years subject to tithes, but the tenants have [illegible], and requesting to know the amount of the tithe composition, it is presumed under circumstances he is liable for the entire amount.
Knockroe	Duke of Devonshire	8	2	10								Tenants liable.
Lisfinny	Captain Croker	14	4	4	14	4	4				15th Feby 183[illegible]	Replied 17th Feby. that he always paid when called on, but requesting indulgence. Some paid
Tullow Bridge Holdings	Duke of Devonshire	7 400	7 0	8 0	1	14	6	5	13	2	Col. Curry [illegible] bly by [illegible]	[illegible] paid the amount of the Duke's liabilities for 1834 & 1835. the rest of the composition is payable by holding small plots of ground.

The information afforded in this Schedule was not obtained till 2nd Feby. though correspondence relative to the Deanery has been going on for months. The delay in obtaining copies of the tithe Composition books and Schedules without which it was impossible even to make an [illegible] has much retarded the collection of the revenues.