Macroom Sept 13th 1833

Sir

I have the Honor to enclose you two letters, one from the Rector of the Union of Magourney and Kilcoleman, the other from the Right Honorable of the Barony in which this Union is situated; you will perceive that both those Gentlemen are ignorant of a division having ever existed between those Parishes, in addition to which I beg leave to state, that I have seen a large County Map, belonging to Robert Hedges Eyre Esq. wherein all the Parishes are clearly laid down, Magourney is mentioned, but there is no trace of Kilcoleman.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,
