N.B. The two following letters, ordered by the Lord Bishop of Clogher to be copied into this Book, show why the Commissioner assumed the two Parishes Magourney and Kilcoleman, as one, under the Name of Magourney.

Macroom Sept 13th 1833

Sir

I have the Honor to enclose you two letters, one from the Rector of the Union of Magourney and Kilcoleman; the other from the High Constable of the Barony, in which this Union is situated; you will perceive that both those Gentlemen are ignorant of a division having ever existed between those Parishes, in addition to which I beg leave to state that I have seen a large County Map, belonging to Robert Hedges Eyre Esq, wherein all the Parishes are clearly laid down, Magourney is mentioned, but there is no trace of Kilcoleman.

I have the Honor to be Sir,
Your obedient Servt
John Henry Spaer
The Commissioner

To
The Right Honble
Sir William Gosset
Castle Dublin.

Dublin Castle
18 Sept 1833

Sir

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th Instant and its enclosures, from which it would appear that Magourney and Kilcoleman are not separate Parishes. And I am to acquaint you that under the information you have obtained, you must assume that they are one Parish.

I am Sir
Your obedient Servt
Wm Gosset
