Extracted from the Register of the Episcopal Court of Cloyne

We Owen Madden and James Tarrant Esqrs of the town of Mallow in the County of Cork Commissioners duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an act made in the Fourth year of the Reign of King George the Fourth intitled an act to provide for the establishing of Compositions for tithes in Ireland for a limited time, to ascertain and fix a true and just composition for all tithes arising growing yielded or payable within the parish of Mallow in the County of Cork, do hereby certify that the true and just amount of composition for all tithes whatever within the said Parish is six hundred and fifty pounds, by the year, and that the said sum of six hundred and fifty pounds is due and payable to the Revd Nicholas Mixow as a composition for said tithes claimable by him as Rector of said Parish.

And We do further certify that the average price of Oats (being the Corn principally grown in the County of Cork) for the period of seven years ending on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty one is Fifteen shillings and two pence farthing per barrel as calculated from the returns advertised in the Dublin Gazette during said seven years. Given under our hands at Mallow in the County of Cork this twenty eight day of October 1823. Owen Madden James Tarrant. Commrs. To the Registrar of the Right Hon. Lord Bishop of Cloyne &c &c

We further state that the Barrel alluded to is of Stone and as a image taken from a document handed to us by the Revd N. Mixow which he signified to have received from Mr Gorham as calculated from the Dublin Gazette

Owen Madden. James Tarrant

The foregoing is a true copy of the original certificate of composition for the Parish of Mallow, which I attest, J. Wilkinson, Dio: Cloyne
