We have according to the directions of the 21st Section of the Act of George IVth Cap. 99, caused a Survey to be made of all the Arable on each person's holding in the Parish of Saggard, otherwise Passaggard, County of Dublin, and Archdiocese of Dublin, and deducted the same from his gross number of Acres. We find that the the whole of the nett number of acres, subject to pay the Rectorial Tithes of said Parish of Saggard, otherwise Passaggard, on which the Composition is to be raised is, 672 : 0 : 15 Plantation measure, and the sum to be apportioned on the said 672 : 0 : 15, plantation measure is £110, and is payable to the Very Reverend the Dean of Saint Patricks, Dublin, Rector of said Parish, —

We have also according to the directions of the said Act, apportioned the above sum on all the lands, subject to pay the Rectorial Tithes of said Parish, equally in proportion to their Sols, quality, and value, according to the best of our Skill, and ability. We have also divided the Lands into nine several and distinct classes, as on the foregoing, —

Ignatius Moore,
John Norton, } Commissioners.
