Quarter Sessions above mentioned to have the average price of oats being the grain in the Certificate mentioned for the preceding seven years in the Statutes in that behalf mentioned enquired of and ascertained in order that the said Compositions for Tithes and the Rentcharges in lieu thereof might be varied and increased according to such average price as compared with the price of Twelve shillings and eleven pence halfpenny being the price of oats per Barrel as set forth in said Certificate. 12/11½

And Whereas the said James Bagge having appeared before the said Justices at such Quarter Sessions and said notice of application Certificate and the average price of oats as advertised in the Dublin Gazette for the said period of seven years having been proved and that the said James Bagge as Vicar of said Parish was entitled to a proportion of said Rentcharge.

Now the said Justices do ascertain from the said Gazette and evidence of James Richard Bull Esquire that the average price of oats for the said period of seven years is fourteen shillings and six pence three farthings for each Barrel 14/6¾ and the said Justices do accordingly order and adjudge that the amount of the said Composition for Tithes in the said Parish and the Rentcharges payable in lieu thereof shall be increased in proportion to the difference between the said average price of fourteen shillings and six pence three farthings for the said period of seven years and the average price stated in the said Certificate

Certificate of Composition and that the applotment of such Composition shall be amended accordingly.

Dated this eleventh day of October in the Year of our Lord 1861

John Hervey Richards — Chairman of the Justices at Quarter Sessions for the said County of Waterford

W. J. Jennehy — Clerk of the Peace for said County of Waterford
