At a Vestry held in the Parish Church of Kilbrittain on Monday the 27th day of April 1840 pursuant to adjournment — it was resolved (That from the dilapidated state of the wall of the old burial place) the sum of one farthing per acre should be assessed and levied off the landes of the Union for the purpose of repairing the same —. That Jos: Kelly and Thos: Ranger have appointed to assist the cess aforesaid —. That the Revd. Mr Hartigan is a proper person to receive the money and that he is requested to see it properly expended —.

It was resolved by the Vicar and the Churchwardens that the following disposition of the pews be submitted to the Lord Bishop of the Diocese for his Lordships approval —.

The pew on the north side of the communion table for the House of Egreville —.

The pew on the South side of Do — for the House of Betone —.

The Pew opposite the reading desk for the Vicars family —.

The pew next thereto the Houses commonly called Kilbrittain Lodge, and the slate House in the demesne of Betone commonly called Maddens nursery —. The pew next the reading desk for the Houses commonly called Charleville and Charleville —.

The Pews on the right and left of the entrance for accomodation of the remainder of the parishioners and to be kept as open pews —

Given under our Hands this 27th of April 1840
