Whereas I, the Rev. Henry Stone rector of the parish of Cannew under & by virtue of an act passed in the second & third year of the reign of his Majesty King William the Fourth, entitled "An act to amend three acts passed respectively in the fourth fifth & in the seventh & eighth years of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Fourth providing for the establishing of the composition of tithes in Ireland & to make such compositions permanent" – have received a notice from the Right Hon. James George Earl of Courtown to the following effect –

Sir I James George Earl of Courtown chief landlord seized in fee simple of all that & those the lands of Boleanish the meres & bounds whereof are as follows that is to say bounded on the north by Kinkmalowey Killilly & Ballynaskeak on the south by Ballybeg on the east by Ballynaskeir & Ballytarna and on the west by Ballycadden situate in the parish of Cannew barony of Scarawalsh & Co. of Wexford as also of all that & those the lands of Donegshed the meres & bounds whereof are as follows that is to say bounded on the north by Killelchane on the south by Bishops lands on the east by Lord W. Nowis' lands & on the west by Mr. Griffins lands situate in the parish of Cannew barony of Scarawalsh & Co. of Wexford or being otherwise entitled according to the provisions of the said act to agree for & undertake the payment of the composition of tithes lawfully payable for & in respect of the lands do hereby signify & you may desire to agree for & undertake the payment of such composition as aforesaid for & in respect of the said lands & I do hereby require you to grant to me a certificate in writing conformable to the provisions of the said act declaring me entitled to the benefit of this notice