Ireland and for that purpose that the average price of corn as advertised in the Dublin Gazette for the period of Seven years preceding the year 1890 might be enquired of and ascertained in order that the composition for Tithes and the Tithe Rent-Charge in the said Parish of Blondulane might be varied and diminished for the ensuing seven years in proportion to such average price and the assessment and applotment thereof varied and diminished accordingly. And Whereas the said Applicants have appeared by Mr Richard M. Hennessy of Counsel instructed by Mr W. F. St Leger Solicitor and the Lay Impropriators by Mr George Lawrence of Counsel instructed by Mr J Randal Donaldson Solicitor. Upon hearing the said Applicants and their Counsel and the evidence adduced the said Justices are of opinion that the said Applicants are not entitled to have said average price of corn inquired of and ascertained in order that said composition for Tithes and Tithe Rentcharge may be varied and diminished accordingly. And it is therefore ordered and adjudged by the said Justices that the said application be dismissed accordingly And it is further ordered that the Applicants do pay to the Lay Impropriator's Solicitor the sum of

for the costs charges and expenses of the said Lay Impropriators in appearing and resisting such application
