Kilcolgan 1855

James E Nesbitt Esq.

Rev. Hill Benson

Cert of Titles Act undertake

Kilcolgan

Esq.
To Civil Bill
The Registrar of Roscommon
Before

I Hill Benson Rector & Vicar of the Parish of Kilcolgan hereby certify that I received on the 18th day of January Inst. a Notice signed James E. Nesbitt of which the annexed is a true Copy

"In as much as I am Chief Landlord of the Lands & premises herein after mentioned and described improved and entitled to agree for and undertake the future payment of any Composition for tithes charged or which may become chargeable thereon – Take Notice that it is my desire and I agree for, and undertake the duty, Obligation, and liability to the future payment of such composition as is charged or may become chargeable on all that the lands of Cronroad – Castleearn & Keenahan – and their and every of their subdenominations situate, lying, and being in the parish of Kilcolgan of which said lands, and premises, I am the Chief Landlord and Owner in fee – which said agreement I am so desirous of making in order to be entitled to the abatement or reduction, on such Composition, as by the Statutes in such case provided – and I hereby require you that you will with all convenient speed after the receipt hereof to grant to me a certificate reciting the Notice and declaring me entitled to the benefit hereof – Such certificate to be executed under hand & seal so that I