At a Vestry held in the Church of the Union of Moore and Drum on the fifth day of April eighteen hundred and twenty five (being Easter Tuesday) of which previous and legal Notice was given it is agreed by the Minister ~~Clergy~~ and Protestant Parishioners then present that William Knight of Clonburn and Joseph Bigley of Cranagh be and they are hereby appointed to act as Church Wardens for said Union for the present year. It is also agreed that Charles Gillies is appointed Sexton for said Union – It is also agreed that the sum of ten pounds for the Clerk's salary and five pounds for the Sexton's salary be assessed on said Union for said year – for Chalice Cup and Paten sixty pounds – for Communion Linen two pounds – for plush Cover and for the Communion table two guineas – for Elements of bread and wine one pound – for Vestry Book ten shillings – for Parish Registry one guinea – for two Prayer Books and one Bible four Guineas – for one Surplice thirty shillings –

Signed

James Anderson } Rector & Vicar

Parishioners

William Knight } Church Wardens

Wm Power

William Agnew

Jno Clarke

James Grey

William Moore

~~At a Vestry held in the Church of the Union of Moore & Drum on the twentieth day of Decr eighteen hundred and twenty five of which previous and legal notice was given, it is agreed by the Minister and Protestant Parishioners then present, that the sum of ~~thirteen pounds~~ thirteen pounds fifteen shillings and the ~~[illegible]~~ and twenty be assessed on said Union for said year being the amount of expenses for conservating said Church~~

At a Vestry held in the Church of the Union of Moore and Drum on the twentieth day of Decr eighteen hundred and twenty five of which previous and legal notice was given, it is agreed by the