Sir

As you hold in hand a receipt of mine for £1. 5. 6. I wish you had kept of returning it & I would refund the £1. 2. 6. which I am ready to do as soon as my receipt is returned to me. To complain of the greatness of such an act as that of allowing but one Shilling for receiving, lodging & giving a receipt for any matter document, holding a person in such an office of importance concerning the property accountable for the keeping of that document & allowing but one Shilling as a recompence for that trouble is manifestly & undisputably a great injustice & hardship. But I am sensible that my saying so is of no avail. You will therefore as soon as convenient return my receipt & I will on your doing so refund £1. 2. 6 & am Sir your Obedt Servt
