all Tithes in the Parish of Corbally adjoining said Parish of Bourney in said County Tipperary and which certificate set forth that wheat was the corn principally grown in the said County Tipperary during the seven years next preceding the first day of November 1821 and that the average price of same for the said period was £1-18-8½ per barrel and upon hearing the evidence upon oath of Whitfield Howard also of Samuel Carse in the employment of the Proprietors of the Dublin Gazette who produced the copies of said gazette for the seven years preceding said application and upon reading said notice and application and upon hearing what was offered by Mr Richard A Eaton Solicitor for applicants and Mr William Bridge Solicitor for the Marquis of Ormonde.

We the said Justices at Quarter Sessions assembled do hereby declare that we have found that the corn principally grown in the County Tipperary for seven years prior to the first day of November 1821 (and upon which said composition was based) was wheat and that the average price of same for said period was £1-18-8½ late Irish currency equivalent to £1-15-9 British Currency per barrel. That the average price of wheat for the seven years preceding the said application as advertised in the Dublin Gazette was 18s/7½d per barrel and we do hereby order and direct that the said annual composition so payable in lieu of the Lay or Impropriate Tithes in said Parish of Bourney be and the same is hereby varied in proportion to the said average price of wheat and we do hereby ascertain and fix the sum of £182-6-10 as the amount of the annual composition for the Lay or Impropriate Tithes in the said Parish of Bourney for seven years from the first day of November 1891 in lieu of the said composition of £350 and until same shall be again varied pursuant to the provisions of the said Statutes (and we do hereby further find and ascertain that the Tithe Rent Charge payable in lieu of the said composition amounts to the sum of £136-15-2 and we do hereby