for his & their joint benefit
Luis O'Dell, the 2 latter having only obtained possession on a division being made about January 1855 by Trustees Langley & Fitzgerald of Lisnicik land Agents —

These lands were in Chancery for several years in the cause of Madden v Hammond and Mr Brown was supposed to have merely obtained a temporary assignment of them to pay a debt due to him by the Repts of John Dowdell Hammond the original proprietor whose grandson & heir at law is Mr Robert Curtis the present receiver of the Rents —

Any further information required by the Solicitor can be obtained without difficulty —

Have the honor to be
Dear Sir
