By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland.

Hardwicke.

Whereas the Deanery of Limerick being now Vacant, it is expedient that the Rectorial Tithes of the Parish of Cappagh, part of the Corps of the said Deanery, should be disappropriated and disunited therefrom.

Now We the Lord Lieutenant and Council by virtue of the powers vested in Us by the Statutes in that case made and provided, Do Order and Direct that the said Rectorial Tithes of the Parish of Cappagh, be and the same are hereby disappropriated, disunited and divested from and out of the aforesaid Deanery, and transferred to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland, to be by them carried to the General Fund under their administration after making thereout such provision for the due performance of the occasional