I John Edward Langford having been appointed and sworn a Commissioner under and by Virtue of an Act made in the second and third years of the Reign of King William the fourth to amend and to be perpetual three Acts made in the seventh and eighth years of the Reign of King George the fourth providing for the establishing of Composition for Tithes in Ireland to ascertain and fix a true and just amount of Composition for all Tithes arising growing yielding or payable within the Parish of Carne in the County of Wexford and in the Diocese of Ferns

And having by Command of His Excellency the Marquis of Anglesea Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Investigated certain Charges contained in a Memorial forwarded to him by the Landowners Land Holders and Tithe Payers of the Parish of Carne against the Incumbent of the Rector of said Parish he (the said Rector) having taken promissory Notes as payment and those for a fictitious Value

I do certify that the true and just amount of Composition for all tithes whatever in said Parish is Two Hundred pounds sterling by the year and are due and payable to the Revd Richard Bevan as a composition for the Tithes claimed by him as Rector of said Parish

And I do further certify that the average price of Oats (as taken from the Dublin Gazette for the seven years preceding November 1830) is twelve shillings and eleven pence halfpenny Sterling per Barrel being the Corn principally grown in this County

Given under my hand this 20th day of November 1833 three –

J E Langford

Commissioner –
