his return has been so long delayed. —
He trusts it will now
be found correct, as every possible care
has been taken to render it so. — Any expense he will incur
be expended on account of my awkwardness at such business. —
There is no Glebe house or lands whatsoever belonging to this Parish the Ecc.ll Commissioners in such a case
allowed £50. per. an.
for a residence.
His Parish Compn
Book is to be forwarded to you by Book Post
today, & the return &
certificate will be posted (D.V.) tomorrow. —
The postage in each case pre-paid by my Husband.
I have the honor to be
My Lord & Gentlemen
Faithfully yrs
A Mathwin

The Comrs of Ch Temporalities in Ireland