

Namely Clonke, Cavanagh, Sheelagh, Molina, and Clonford is Nineteen pounds — Sted by the year due and payable to the Reverend Francis Gervais Rector as a Contribution for the Tithe claimable by him as Joint Rector of Drummully —

And I do hereby further Certify that the average price of wheat being the principal Corn grown in this County ^{for} seven years ending 1st November 1830 was £ 12. 6 1/2 and that the average price of oats for a like period of seven years ending Nov^r 1830. was 12. 11 1/2 —
British Money — J^{rs} Barwell —

Signed —

J^{rs} Francis Haman Comm^r

Dated this 11th day of Oct^r 1833 —