June 5 1857

Dear Sir

I fear that most if not all of the papers connected with proceedings in the County Exchequer on behalf of the late Peter C. Marshall of Fayette, have been destroyed, nor do I see of what consequence they could be to you now. The occupiers of the tenements in Loughkeel were so numerous, that every succeeding year gave you some new names. In '37 or '38 I left a small book, with Mr. Dr. Hauser, containing a list of the names with the extent of the Holdings at that time. He never returned that book to me, and I referred Mr. Pack to him for it a few years since. The reason
