

on the grounds that they are not personally liable, is not unlikely to be good; for the persons in occupation were, sometimes, not the persons possessed of the joint estate of Inheritance, but holding from them, as nearly tenants, or tenants for a term. The person who supplies me with the information above alluded to, considering himself well rewarded by the donation of a few shillings.
And it will be only in that way you can obtain information.
I acted immediately in taking J. O. W. for all the greater number of cases without legal proceedings, some did not, and it was impossible to get the Civil Bill Process served - The servers being limited to a fee of 6^d & give their selves no trouble for such a consideration, but rather endeavored to baffle the law. The only difficulty in serving subpoenas resulted from there being no local devers, & the men from Dublin did not know the houses. Any information I had from the way require, I shall be happy to supply
