

Edward B. Keade of Kilkenny is the County of Galway Commissioner and duly appointed and sworn under & by virtue of an Act passed in the 3rd year of King William the fourth entitled an Act to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament for providing for the Compositions of Tithes in Ireland to ascertain and fix a true Computation for all Tithes arising growing yield<sup>ing</sup> & payable within the Parish of Iniscattin in the Counties of Lond<sup>on</sup> and Galway do hereby Certify that the true and just amount of Compositions for all Tithes whatever within the said Parish is seventy three pounds Sterling by the Year and which are due and payable to the Reverend Hugh Brady Vicar of the Vicar - No claim having been made by Philip Keade Esq<sup>r</sup> and the Messrs Sandys the Assignees
- printers of the above two Acts - Dated this 2nd day of January 1834

Edward B. Keade
To Rev<sup>d</sup> Richard Martin Kilkenny -
Tithes Com<sup>r</sup>