

Consistorial Office Kilkenny
28th August 1829

My Lord,
I have had the honor to receive your Lordship's letter of the 28th inst. wherein you mention that Mr White the Commissioner for the Parish of Kilsalely had sent up to the Castle the Applotment book of that Parish, which he stated I had refused receiving into the Registry on account of its not being properly bound - and acquainting me that on examination of the Book sent up by Mr White, it appeared to your Lordship to be sufficiently good for the purpose of Registry - The Book which Mr White has transmitted to the Castle, a duplicate of which was lodged by Mr White in this Office on the 28th inst. I did not refuse
