

Receiving, inasmuch as it appeared to me to have been correctly made out & sufficiently well bound - but I did decline receiving from Mr. White a document transmitted to me by him about six weeks since purporting to be a Book of the Applotment of the Lites of Philadelphia - but which consisted of only a few sheets of paper loosely put together - in that perishable state, certainly not calculated for the purpose of being preserved in the Registry as had been ~~contemplated~~ contemplated by the Legislature, ~~in a perfect & durable~~ ~~state~~, ~~and~~ for the security & benefit of all Persons interested therein.
