

We, John Parke of Jamestown, in the County of Dublin, and William Palmer of Marconet Street Dublin, in said County, Esquires, Commissioners duly appointed and Sworn, under and by Virtue of an Act made and passed, in the Fourth year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "an Act to provide for the establishing of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland for a limited time," and of an Act made and passed in the Fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "an Act to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for providing, for the establishing of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland," and of an Act made and passed in the seventh and eighth years of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "an Act to amend the Acts for the establishing of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland," to ascertain and fix a true and just Composition for all Tithes, arising, growing, yielded or payable, within the Parish of Kilgobbin, in the Diocese and County of Dublin, do hereby Certify that the true and just amount of Composition for all Tithes whatever, within the said Parish of Kilgobbin, is, one hundred and fifty pounds, Sterling, by the year, which Sum is due and payable to the Reverend Henry Kearney as a Composition for the Tithes Claimable by him as perpetual Curate and Ecclesiastical Incumbent of the said Parish - the said annual Sum of one hundred and fifty pounds Sterling, having been agreed to by the said Henry Kearney, perpetual Curate and Incumbent as aforesaid, with the assent of His Grace, William Lord Archbishop of Dublin, as Bishop of the Diocese, and in Rotation with the Archdeacon of Dublin, Patron of said Benefice, and also with the assent of The Reverend John Ferris, Archdeacon of Dublin, Patron as aforesaid, signified in writing, and signed by them respectively, and assented to, and accepted at a Special Vestry duly called and assembled under the provisions of the said Acts, in the said Parish of Kilgobbin, on Tuesday the 25th day of September 1827, and to take effect from the first day of November next.

And we do further Certify that the average price of Oats, being the Corn principally grown in said County for the period of seven years, ending on the first day of November 1821, according to a Schedule thereof furnished by the Right Honourable Henry Goulburn, late Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, is fifteen shillings and two pence farthing, late Irish Currency, or fourteen shillings and one farthing, British, per Barrel.

Given under our hands this 29th day of September 1827.

John Parke }
William Palmer } Commissioners.
