

PROTESTANT FEMALE ORPHAN SCHOOL.

There are Three Vacancies in this Institution. A Meeting of the Committee will be held on Monday, the 30th day of April next, when Three Children will be admitted.

W. W. MAUNSELL, Treasurer.
Elizabethtown, April 11.

TO BE LET,
FROM THE FIRST DAY OF MAY NEXT,
For Two Lives,

THE DEERPARK

OF BEECHWOOD,
CONTAINING 146 IRISH ACRES,
ALL PASTURE AND MEADOW LAND,
Surrounded by a seven foot wall.

Proposals (post-paid) to be received by WILLIAM EVANS, Esq., Clonmont, Nenagh.
John Casey will show the Lands.

April 11th.

COUNTY OF CLARE.

HOUSE AND LAND

TO BE LET,

From the 25th of March, or First of May next,
FOR SOON AS MAY BE TAKEN ON,

THE DWELLING-HOUSE, OFFICES, &c.

In the Town of Newmarket.

OCCUPIED BY THE LATE JOHN HEALY.

The House is a most commodious one, and in perfect repair. The Offices are newly built and extensive; there is attached a large Yard, together with a good Kitchen Garden; and within five minutes' walk of the house is the Farm—Thirty Acres of excellent LAND fit for Dairy or Tillage.

The House and Farm will be let either together or separately.

Application (by letter post-paid) to Mr. FRANCIS HEALY, Newmarket-on-Fergus, who will close with a Tenant, and give immediate possession.

February 22.

TO BE SOLD,

FEE SIMPLE STATES.

COUNTY OF KILKENNY.

CONTAINING upwards of 100 Acres, let on down-minable Lease to Edward Fogarty, and producing Rent, per annum, exclusive of 50 Acres under valuable Timber, Oak, Ash, and Birch, well preserved; also, several Tenants, in the County of Limerick, demised by Lease, with covenants for perpetual renewal on payment of Rent, and producing only 300l. per annum, having been let at very low Rates, also, to be sold, Chief Rent of the amount of 300l. per annum, arising out of States situated in the Counties of Clare and Limerick.

These Properties are most desirable, and well worth the attention of Investors.

Applications, (if by letter, postage paid), to be made to Messrs. Borge & Bellinger, No. 107, George-street, been recorded:—Michael Kilfoyle, for burglary and robbery, Gilbert Dwyer and Pat. M'Evoy, for cow-stealing, John Daly, James Hunt and Philip Lahart, for burglary and felony, James Carroll, Denis M'Dermott and Patrick Morrissey, for sheep-stealing; Darby Lahy, Thomas Burke, Daniel Shanahan, Denis Deane, John Ryan, or Grady, and Margaret M'Redmond, for a felony in a house, John Sullivan, for stealing a mare, James Grady, for stealing a gelding, Michael Hayes and Thomas Hayes, for abduction.

The seven following to be transported for life: John Foley, Henry Houston, Edmond Ryan, Michael Hogan, John Hogan, Edmond Hogan and Mathew Hogan, for manslaughter.

The three following to fourteen years transportation—James Linnon, for felony of Bank Notes, James Galvan and Mary Walsh, having a forged note in possession.

The following to five to seven years transportation—Michael Cahy, for stealing timber, Patrick Foley, James Foley and John Maher, for manslaughter, Philip Gilbert, Michael Fox, Timothy alias Stephen Dwyer, John Hickey, Patrick White, for pig-stealing, Patrick Maher, Patrick Healy, Michael Connors, Thos. Clancy, Michael Bryan, Thomas Ryan, Timothy Kilfoyle, James Kennedy, John Brien, Luke Robinson, and Martin Galpin, for sheep-stealing, James Heffernan, James Dwyer and John Ryan, for cow-stealing, Patrick Kilaher alias P. Leamy, Thos. Hurley, John Walsh, William Maher, Mary Dwyer, Judith Healy, Mary Connors and Mary Scally, for stealing clothes, Patrick Ahern and Mary Kiely for stealing brass cocks, knives and locks, Thomas Duggan, for vagrancy (should this man find bail in three months, he is to be discharged); Edm. Smith, Martin Fallon, Joseph Caddy, Henry Stephenson, Mathew Torpy, Michael Mackey, Edward Shea, or Murphy, and Bridget Lonergan, for having forged bank notes in their possession, James Callaghan, for stealing an ass and whelp, John Kussel, for stealing a saddle and bridle, Ellen Connel, for stealing calve, John Leary and John Butler for stealing leather, Richard Keating and Honora M'Grath, for stealing lace, Catherine Connors, alias Waterloo Girl, for stealing money and clothes, Mary Ryan, for stealing turkeys and pots, Thos. Leamy, for stealing a gun—this culprit is also charged with having stolen and shipped three pieces of Cannon, viz. 24lb. and 36lb. pieces, on the 16th June, 1847, appearing in arrest, Philip Butler, for forging a certificate, Thomas Mahony, for perjury, Karmody, Brien, for stealing money, and Daniel Connors, for murder, to stand over till the 1st of May next; Margaret Phelan, for murder, into public station of the industrial of the innocent ready suffer to the law, by upright Judges of fidelity, and we hear of his associates to those of kenny God about to ex they had a horrible ch them about While they shall never promulga deer; we realized in the vast, tionary ge with feelin ticularly, considere telligent is favorab matter of degree afforded of difficu as they c would, u stance if convicted those wh a person specting wretche somewh replies, Mr. Se ticed Conno Barry, colu to the that in Jury and o God-enem concei protec her p