

I Benjamin Coates do swear, that I will faithfully impartially and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and ability, execute and perform the Powers and Authorities vested and reposed in me as a Commissioner in the Parish of Kilpipe by virtue of an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the fourth entitled an Act to provide for the establishing of Compositions for Tithes in Ireland for a limited time, according to the directions of the said Act and according to equity and good Conscience and without Favour or Affection, Prejudice or Malice, to any Person or Persons whomsoever. . . To help me God.

Sworn before me this 22nd day of December 1823
