And Whereas an Appeal against the said Certificate having been duly made to His Excellency, Richard Marquess Wellesley, then Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, by the Rev^d John Whitty, setting forth amongst other matters that he was duly and regularly presented, instituted and inducted into the Rectories and Vicarages of the united Parishes of Rathvilly, Rathmore, Rathos and Rahill - That his Predecessors Incumbents of said Parish of Rathmore had been from time immemorial intitled to and had received and been paid the Tithes of said Lands of Ricketstown and Rathdaniel (awarded by ^a Certificate to Hugh Cumming and John D. Duckett) and Prayed that he the Appellant might be declared to be entitled to the Tithes thereof - And Notice of such Appeal having been duly given, - the said Appeal in pursuance of an Order for that purpose came on to be heard before the said Richard Marquess Wellesley then Lord Lieutenant of Ireland in Council on the 27th day of January, 1827, the said Hugh Cumming and John D.
Duckett appearing by their Counsel as Respondents to said Appeal And it being alleged in the said Appeal, that the Appellant had filed a Bill in the Court of Exchequer + against several of the Occupiers of the said Lands for subtraction of Tithes And which Suit was then still pending and undetermined. It was Ordered upon Hearing of the said Appeal on the said 27th of January, 1827. "that the Certificate therein
